

Gaia Cruise

A sustainable sailing week focusing on the protection of nature through ethical and responsible tourism.

It is all about being part of the solution with the maximum use of sail, zero waste products on board, consuming local seasonal products and a beach cleaning day! Including also visits to permaculture farms, ancient olive groves, biodynamic vineyards, and old ancient temples.

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Recommended for                         | All eco-conscious travelers   |
| Activities                              | Contribution to the protection of the environmentVisits to local and traditional restaurantsVisits to permaculture farmsBeach cleaningLong sailing trips (+6 hours) |
| Proposed seasons                        | Off season   May   June   |
| Number of passagers (max)               | 6   |
| Destination                             | Saronic Gulf   Cyclades   |
| Price (skipper and provisions included) | From 4,000€ to 5,500€   |